

About Us

Then. Now. Forever.

Then, Message was The Gospel Herald, a little paper produced first by James Edson White in 1898 on a steamboat called The Morning Star. His idea was to minister to that first generation of emancipated persons in need of education, vocation, and spiritual uplifting. The little paper has turned into Message, an award winning, bi-monthly, 32-page religious journal that features uplifting interviews, thoughtful analysis of current events and the prophetic voice of spiritual leaders.

Message 1975

With its committed readership of 40,000 subscribers, Message is often “gifted” to friends and loved ones. It is given away during large commemorations such as the Inauguration of President Barack Obama and the celebration of the 50th Anniversary of the March on Washington.

Now, Message reaches more readers than ever from its enhanced digital platforms—messagemagazine.com, and sharemessage.org. Loyal readers follow our Facebook page for daily devotionals and Bible readers participate in the first ever interactive Bible study “The Experience,” by posting their comments with the #messagemagazine.

Because God has been forever faithful to us, and because His mercy endures forever, Message will forever share the word of God and the abundant life with spiritual seekers everywhere.

Message 1956