

“The Greatest Gift of All” by George Powell

It is with immense joy, pride, and excitement that we at Message present to you, again, George Powell singing his original song, “The Greatest Gift of All.” Powell wrote the verses and Chester Baldwin wrote the chorus. This song is going to make you feel warm, worship, cry, and want nothing more than be able to download this gem on all your music platforms. May this song remind you that this season, Jesus truly is the greatest gift of all. Be blessed.