

#WhatsTheMessage EP 008: Coronavirus, The Honey Pot, and Vulnerable Communities

In this episode Carmela and Claudia discuss the coronavirus COVID-19 pandemic, Target and the Honey Pot commercial, black owned businesses, and a recent report from Homeland Security on the vulnerability of faith-based communities to violence. This episode is jam packed with a lot of good stuff you absolutely do not want to miss. They discuss everything from washing your hands, to whether or not support businesses affiliated with varying forms of spirituality, and even the Emmett Till Anti-Lynching Act. Make sure you tune in to this episode as we know you're gonna enjoy it.

Follow us on instagram and Twitter @Message 1898

Subscribe to our Youtube channel

at <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCUIdIXPJttzqgr831DqNyHg>

Make sure you're getting our weekly newsletters and our bi-monthly print issue by subscribing on our website at www.messagemagazine.com