

#WhatsTheMessage Repost of EP 16

In light of the recent killing of George Floyd we encourage you to watch a recent episode we did with Rev. Jim Wallis and Sgt. Don Jackson on the killings of Ahmaud Arbery, Breonna Taylor, and Sean Reed. May we continue to fight against racial injustice and heal our land.

In this episode Carmela and Claudia welcome Rev. Jim Wallis, President and Founder of Sojourners, and Sgt. Don Jackson (a.k.a. Diop Kamau), Founder of policeabuse.com to #WhatsTheMessagePodcast. They discuss at length the cases of #AhmaudArbery, #BreonnaTaylor, and #SeanReed. In this episode they articulate the correlation between sin and racism, discuss the broken criminal justice system and the inherent malpractice in policing, as well as solutions and points of engagement for the general public. This is a critical and eye opening episode that you do not want to miss. Be sure to share and subscribe.

You can read an informative article by Editor-in-Chief, Carmela Monk-Crawford on Sgt. Don Jackson's work and his take on previous police and vigilante justice killings by clicking on the following link:

<https://www.messagemagazine.com/issues/2017-januaryfebruary/sure-sins-will-find/>

You can follow Sgt. Don Jackson and his work at www.policeabuse.com and on Twitter @diopkamau.

You can follow Rev. Jim Wallis and his work at www.sojo.net and on Twitter @jimwallis.

Make sure you subscribed to our bi-monthly magazine and our weekly newsletter by visiting our website at www.messagemagazine.com.

Follow us on Instagram and Twitter @Message1898 and on Facebook at Message Magazine.

Subscribe to our YouTube channel and click on the bell to get notifications every time we post new content.